McKelvey Center

Programming at the McKelvey Center is made possible in part by the Friends of McKelvey and by the South Carolina Arts Commission which receives support from the National Endowment for the Arts. Arts in Education programs are made possible in part by a grant from Target.

Arts in Education: Mike Mulligan and His Steam Shovel

THUR, MAR 11; 9:30 & 11 a.m.

Recommended for ages 3 – 7

Mike Mulligan and his Steam Shovel, Mary Anne, have been together for many years. But times have changed and newer, fancier shovels have become fashionable, leaving Mike and Mary Anne out of work and down to their last dime. Their final hope could be the little town of Poppersville, which needs a basement dug for its new City Hall.

Cost $7 per person; Call 803.684.3948 x27 for reservation

Arts in Education: New Kid

THUR, MAR 25; 9:30 a.m. & 3:30 p.m.

Recommended for ages 8 – 14

New Kid is a unique, award-winning play that tells the story of a boy named Nick who leaves the fictitious country of Homeland and comes to America with his parents.

Cost $7 per person; Call 803.684.3948 x27 for reservations

Southern Film Series: Key Largo

SUN, MAR 28; 3 p.m.

Humphrey Bogart heads an all-star cast that includes Lauren Bacall, Edward G. Robinson and Lionel Barrymore in the 1948 film. Bogart plays Frank McCloud, a World War II hero who visits a hotel in the Florida Keys owned by the beautiful wife and crippled father of his best friend, who was killed in the war. The trio soon become the prisoners of a mob of gangsters, who hole up in the hotel to await the passing of a hurricane. Also, CHM historian Michael Scoggins will be doing a short presentation on the historical background in conjunction with the movie.

Cost $3 for CHM members, $5 for non-members

HISTORICAL CENTER OF YORK COUNTY ANCESTORS & ARCHIVES SERIES

The staff presents educational workshops on the second Saturday each month from 11-11:45 a.m. Workshops are free and open to the public; reservations are requested but not required. 803.684.3948 ext. 33, or historicalcenter@chmuseums.org. FREE

Featured Exhibits, Museum of York County

Vernon Grant's Wild and Whimsical Animals

Through OCT 10, 2010

During his career as a professional illustrator, Vernon Grant often featured animals in the artwork he created for magazine covers, product packaging and children's literature. Rendered with wit, charm and a whimsical flair, Grant's illustrations portrayed animals in many delightful and imaginary settings. This exhibit of original and published artworks offers a unique perspective on both the tame and wild creatures we encounter and enjoy throughout our lives.

Turkey Calls: From Function to Folk Art

Through MAY 2, 2010

Discover the "art" of turkey calling in this exhibit of handcrafted turkey calls created by award winning artisans across America.

Ranging from simply functional to elaborately decorative, this selection of box, wing bone and slate turkey calls was created from natural materials like bone, antler, ivory, slate and wood.

Presented in partnership with the National Wild Turkey Federation Winchester Museum.

Catawba River Gallery

This interactive gallery engages families and children through looking, touching, listening and exploring. Get your hands wet as you learn about river floods and drought at the Water Table.
