

HISTORIC BRATTONSVILLE

Culture & Heritage
Museums

Want to be part of the excitement?

Our amazing volunteer force helps with retail, special programs and tours, gardening and more. For more information, visit www.chmuseums.org or call 803. 684. 2327.

Rentals Consider Historic Brattonsville for your next family reunion or corporate event. For more information, call 803. 684. 3948 ext 22.

Historic Brattonsville

Close to Charlotte, NC. Take I-77 Exit 82B, follow signs 1444 Brattonsville Rd. McConells, SC 29726

Visit the SC Welcome Centers for traveler assistance. For visitor information, call 1. 800. 866. 5200. Project assisted by City of Rock Hill and York County Accommodations Tax Programs.

Hours of Operation

Monday-Saturday 10 am-5 pm Sunday 1 pm-5 pm

Open year round except for New Year's Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve and Christmas. Hours, admission and schedule subject to change. Group rates available. In order to protect our historic site, Historic Brattonsville is smoke free and pet free.

All special public programs sponsored in part by the Culture & Heritage Museums' Leadership Circle: Duke Energy, Rock Hill Coca Cola Bottling Company and Williams & Fudge, Inc.

Culture & Heritage
Museums

The Culture & Heritage Museums (CHM) is a linked system of cultural institutions that includes

Historic Brattonsville, the McCelvey Center, the Museum of York County and the new museum being developed on the Catawba River.

Rich in history, nature, arts and culture, the CHM's institutions serve the region in many ways — with exhibits, programs, performances, reenactments, research centers and a wealth of historically and culturally significant sites and collections. Each site provides a unique experience, attracting schoolchildren and visitors from all 50 states and many international countries each year.

Membership Become a member and enjoy benefits of free general admission to all of the Culture & Heritage Museum sites in addition to discounts on gift shop purchases and tickets to special public programs and performances. Call 803. 329. 2121 or visit us online at chmuseums.org for more information.

Smithsonian Institution
Affiliations Program

THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION & ANTEBELLUM SOUTH

Experience living history, including the African American story. Hike the scenic Walt Schrader Trails, see historic breeds of rare farm animals or enjoy a relaxing outdoor picnic. Visit our gift shop, featuring a wonderful selection of regional items.

www.chmuseums.org

2009 Calendar of Special Public Programs*

Living History Saturdays Saturdays Year Round, 10 am-4 pm

Step back in time as costumed interpreters bring to life the Carolina Backcountry of the 18th and 19th centuries through farming, sheep shearing, cotton picking and military drills. Activities and demonstrations vary weekly and seasonally.

General Admission

Children's Day on the Farm Sat, March 28, 10 am-4 pm

Learn what life was like for rural children in the 18th and 19th centuries through crafts, games, pony rides, storytelling and visiting farm animals.

Adult $10, Senior $8, Youth ages 4-17 $5, 3 and under Free

Battle of Huck's Defeat Sat, July 11, 10 am-5 pm

Relive the Revolutionary War in the Carolina Backcountry with camp life demonstrations, music, firearms presentations, theatrical performances and battle reenactments.

Adult $10, Senior $8, Youth ages 4-17 $5, 3 and under Free

By the Sweat of Our Brows Sat, September 12, 10 am-3 pm

Powerful theatrical and musical performances chronicle the lives of African Americans from their homeland to the site of Historic Brattonsville and beyond.

Adult $8, Senior $6, Youth ages 4-17 $4, 3 and under Free

Piedmont Pottery Festival Sat, September 26, 10 am-4 pm

Celebrate the Piedmont's pottery heritage as you purchase traditional Southern pottery, see demonstrations and hear informative speakers.

Adult $10, Senior $8, Youth ages 4-17 $5, 3 and under Free

Civil War Reenactment Sat, October 24, 10 am-5 pm

Experience the war that ravaged America through battle reenactments, camp life activities and children's military drills.

Adult $10, Senior $8, Youth ages 4-17 $5, 3 and under Free

Christmas Candlelight Tours Sat-Sun, December 5-6, call for hours

Light up your family's holidays as costumed interpreters depict holiday life, from the practices of 18th-century settlers to those living on antebellum plantations, in family-friendly theatrical scenarios.

Adult $12, Senior $10, Youth ages 4-17 $6, 3 and under Free

Walt Schrader Trails

An 8.5-mile network of backcountry paths traces the history of Native Americans and Americans of European and African descent. Discover the history and geographical diversity of the Carolina Piedmont as you travel through fields, wetlands and woodlands.

*CHM members receive $2 discount on special public programs

General Admission

Adult $6

Senior $5

Youth ages 4-17 $3

3 and under Free

CHM members Free

Includes Walt Schrader Trails

Historic Brattonsville Gift Shop

Located in the Visitors' Center, the shop offers a unique selection of regional books, foods, jewelry, pottery and children's toys.